

Diwas Timsina

Founder and President
Children of Shangri-Lost (COSL)

Diwas Timsina is the Founder and President of Children of Shangri-Lost (COSL), a youth-based nonprofit educating and raising awareness about refugee and immigrant populations in Pittsburgh and across the country. Timsina is an alum of Junior Achievement of Western Pennsylvania and a 2012 graduate of Baldwin High School. He recently completed a bachelor degree in Information Science and Technology from Penn State University, where he was also a founder and previous president of the Multicultural Club at the campus. Timsina have been featured in the Junior Achievement USA 2012 Annual Report, a Junior Achievement Scholarship recipient, and has been featured in the Pittsburgh Tribune Review, Pittsburgh Post-Gazette, Baldwin-Whitehall Patch, South Hills Record, Pittsburgh Business Times, and WPXI/Allegheny Conference Our Region Business. Timsina has also been a Tedx Pittsburgh speaker and a 2017 Get Involved! Male Emerging Community Leader.

